

The Times of India

27 March 1978

Assam portfolios

GAUHATI, March 26: Mr. Golap Borbora, chief minister of Assam, has allocated portfolios to four new ministers who were sworn in on March 21.

Official sources said here today that Mr. Ramesh Mohan Kohli has been allocated the portfolios of the flood control, welfare of tribal and backward classes, while Mr. Sonaram Thakson has been allocated the portfolios of the hill areas, printing and stationery and registration of stamps.

Mr. Ramani Barman, minister of state, has been allocated the portfolios of the sericulture and weaving and the khadi and village industries.

Samachar,

A majority of the members of the district Congress committee have been critical of the functioning of the party