Assam Ministry faces crisis

GAUHATI, July 27 (UNI):

The fourteen-day-old reconstituted Assam Ministry headed by Mr. Golap Borbora faced a serious crisis today as the pro-changers group in the Janata Legislature Party resigned the primary membership of the party and decided to form an alternative Government with the support of Congress and other like minded parties.

Leader of the group Tarini Mohan Borooah said they had formed a regional party styled "Assam Janata Party," with a national outlook on principles of secularism, socialism and Democracy.

Dr. Borooah, however did not announce how many of the 57 Janata Legislators were with them in the 126-Member Assembly.
