

Assam Cong.-I hopeful of forming govt.

NEW DELHI, December 5 (PTI): The legislature Congress-I party in Assam is confident of submitting to the governor within a week a list of 6 MLAs who will support a new Congress (I) government.

Mr. Keshav Gogoi, former finance minister, Mr. Robin Chaudhury and five other Congress (I) MLAs today met Mr. Yogendra Makwana, Union minister of state for home affairs, to affirm this.

The state assembly has now an effective strength of 119.

The MLAs are here to apprise the party high command of the latest political developments in the state, strengthening the Congress (I) bid to form a government.
